

"The Social Security Trust Fund is expected to remain solvent for about thirty more years.

"By 2029, however, the Social Security Board of Trustees estimates that the trust fund will be c

"President Clinton has proposed to "reserve" the surplus from future budgets until a long-term s

"I agree with this general approach. We should use the surplus to shore up Social Security bef

###